

John C. Kincheloe

jkincheloe@nvcc.edu

<http://kinchteach.com/>

Education

A.B.D. University of Connecticut, CT.	History	2007
▪ Fields: Maritime History, Atlantic World, Native Peoples of the Americas
M.A. James Madison University, VA	History	2003
▪ Thesis: "Guns and Tools to Cloth and Jewels: The Consumer Revolution in Cherokee Country, 1673-1770"
B.A. Hampden-Sydney College, VA	Economics	1997

Academic Appointments

	Associate Professor	2012-present
Northern Virginia Community College, VA- Loudoun	Adjunct Professor	2009- 2012
▪ Developed "case study" curriculum and online based content to maximize efficiency of learning.
▪ Led multiyear student historical research project to develop a history of Loudoun Campus.
▪ Online and Hybrid instructor for numerous extended learning courses.
Saint Anselm's Abbey School	Upper School Instructor	2011-2012
• Advanced Placement instructor of European History and United States Politics and Government.
• Model United Nations advisor.
Germanna Community College, VA	Adjunct Professor	2009- 2011
▪ Taught within Coffeewood Correctional Facility in an inmate degree program.
▪ Built and implemented a series of online courses for Culpeper and Stafford centers.
Quinebaug Valley Community College, CT	Adjunct Professor	2008-2014
▪ Developed Blackboard based online courses to be implemented college wide.
▪ Developed course around written and personal interview based historical interpretation.
Eastern Connecticut State University, CT	Adjunct Professor	2005-2009
▪ Developed project and discussion based seminar course focused on practical applications of environmental history.
Educational Testing Service (ETS)	Advanced Placement Grader	2006- 2012
University of Connecticut, CT	Graduate Teaching Assistant	2003- 2007
Montpelier Foundation, VA	Staff Researcher	2002
▪ Developed exhibit on James Madison's involvement with the Lewis & Clark Expedition
James Madison University, VA	Graduate Teaching Assistant	2001-2003

Courses Taught

- | | |
|--|----------------------------|
| ▪ Early Western Civilizations (Online) (Hybrid) (Honors) | ▪ Maritime History |
| ▪ Modern Western Civilization (Online) Hybrid) | ▪ Virginia History |
| ▪ Early American History (Online) (Hybrid) (Honors) | ▪ US History in Film |
| ▪ Modern American History (Online) (Hybrid) | ▪ US Environmental History |
| | ▪ American Indian History |
| | ▪ The Vietnam War Era |

John C. Kincheloe

Professional Experiences

Dragon Harald Fairhair	Crew Member/Tour Guide	2013, 2017, 2018
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Test sailing and historical experimentation of the largest Viking ship constructed in the modern era. https://www.drakenhh.com/
Jamestown Yorktown Foundation Sailing Program	Volunteer Crew member	2014-2016
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Interpretation, research, and active sailing of 17th century historical vessels.
NVCC Loudoun Campus History Project	Committee Chair/Director	2012-2015
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Multi-year student led, faculty guided history project to reasearch and build a history of the NVCC Loudoun campus's first 40 years. 12 interns and 43 total student contributions culminating in archives and a website. http://loudounhistory.nvcc.edu/
Northern Virginia Digital Archive		2010-2012
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Construction and implementation of a contribution-based digital archive tracking growth and development of Northern Virginia over the last half century.
Virginia Master Teacher Seminar	Facilitator	2006
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Assisted Terry Whisnant in organizing and facilitating events and activities.
Draper National Graduate Student Conference	Conference Chair	2005 - 2006
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Oversight and leading role in the development of the subject, participant selection, organization, marketing, and onsite logistics. http://history.uconn.edu/departments/draper_2006.php
Carnegie Initiative on the Doctorate	Committee Member	2003-2006
A five year nationwide action and research project that worked with doctoral-granting departments committed to restructuring their programs to better prepare graduates. http://www.carnegiefoundation.org
Mashantucket Pequot Museum	Archeology Staff	2005
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Engaged in the excavation of several sixteenth through nineteenth century Native dwellings and camps, on the Mashantucket Pequot reservation in Connecticut (Foxwoods Hotel and Casino.)
Madison Historical Review Online Journal	Founder and Coeditor	2002-2003

Committees

Achieving the Dream Council		2018-Present
Social Science Pathways Committee		2018-Present
Awards Committee		2017-2019
Social Science Program Learning Council		2016-2017
SLO History Disipline Committee		2015-2017
History Position Search Committee- Loudoun		2015, 2016
Secretary of History Cluster		2015-2016
“American House” History Contextualization		2015
Loudoun Campus Committee on Retention		2014-2015
Enviornmental and Sustainability Committee		2013-2015

John C. Kincheloe

Climate Change Symposium Organizing Committee	2014
Loudoun Campus Historical Committee –Chair	2012-2014

Presentations

Historical Presentations

-Sailing the Draken Harald Hafagre: Recreating the Viking Maritime Legacy (Jan. 29, 2014 & 2018)
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-4GKaLTXMGE>

-Going Green: A Brief History or the Environmental Movement (Apr. 9, 2014) NVCC Loudoun -Lunch Series

Ignite NOVA

-Screw with their Minds: Discomfort and the Art of Questioning (Oct. 2014 & Jan. 2017) NVCC-Annandale
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=o6qbf-S7jRM&list=PLC6cRuh6Hoyk4dnnkaIyFSX9vH92COnFw>

Power Up Your Pedagogy

-Keeping it Old School in the New Millennium (Jan. 2017)

-Going Digital or Keeping it Traditional: A Semester Case Study on Best practices for Internet-enabled Deviced in the Classroom (Jan. 2015) NVCC- Annandale

Adjunct Professional Development Day – NVCC Loudoun

-Going Old School through Modern Technology. (Aug. 2016)

-Going Digital: The Strengths and Weakness of Digital Devices in the Classroom Environment. (Jan. 2015)

-Working with Students Outside the Classroom: Lessons Learned from NVCC History Project (Jan. 2014)

Skills

- Blackboard, Panopto, Collaborate, Omeka, Endnote, Vimeo, Video Blogging, Moddle, Netclassroom, SmartBoard, Google doc, Social Media, Patience, Charm, Listening, and Argumentation

Personal Achievements

Completion of the Triple Crown of long distance hiking:

- 1998: Thru-hike of Appalachian Trail, Georgia to Maine (2,175 miles)
- 2000: Thru-hike of Pacific Crest Trail, Mexico to Canada (2,650 miles)
- 2007: Thru-hike of Continental Divide Trail, Canada to Mexico via the Rocky Mountains (2,710 miles)
<http://www.trailjournals.com/kinch>

Solo Expeditions:

- 1996: Cycled across the Continental U.S.- San Diego, CA to Virginia Beach, Virginia (3,190 miles)
- 2001: Thru-hike of West Highland Way (Scotland) - Trek from Glasgow to the Scottish highlands
- 2003: Voyageurs Int. Canoe Route -Historic Fur-trading Route following the U.S./Canada boundary waters
- 2005: Thru-hike of Huayhuash Circuit (Peru) -High altitude circumnavigation of Sula Grande in the Andes mts.

Sailing:

- 2013, 2017, 2018: Draken Harald Hafagre = Norway = Crew & Tour Guide
 - 2014-2015: Jamestown Sailing Program = VA = Crew
 - 2012-present: Fast Forward/Skoot = MD = Crew (Regattas= St. Michaels, Oxford, Poplar Island, Governors Cup)
 - 2015-present: Casey B. (Catalina22): Captain
-